

summary skills jessica claire 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom dedicated high school science teacher encourages creativity exploration student adept relaying complicated scientific theories engaging students scientific discussions maintaining strong bonds students parents specializes international baccalaureate biology preib biology biology honors environmental science constructive high school science teacher proficient providing scientific instruction class sizes 35 methodical organized leader effectively structures lesson plans offer diverse learning experience students proven skills computer software public speaking offering 7 years expertise teaching science lesson planning enforcing rules expectations stem programs biological science environmental science life science syllabus development parent student communication assigning grading work experience progress monitoring documentation reporting positive reinforcement technologies integration lab management problemsolving instructional materials preparation lecturing leading discussions relationship building classroom management physical science verbal written communication progress evaluations educational needs assessment program classroom management scientific instruction labbased instruction test proctoring proficient microsoft software lab project demonstrations hands on learning faculty collaboration support licensed florida high school science teacher sealy isd sealy tx teaching level science appropriate maturity students guiding students design experiments test known scientific methods challenging students better learn science nature teaching students role science economics society whole promoting student interaction dialogue instructional conversation creating positive classroom atmosphere inclusive encourages study teaching students think scientifically making lessons fun interactive explaining basic concepts science getting scientific discussions going 102015 current posing problems questions students asking come answers promoted safe clean classroom environment conducting individualized small group needs created lesson plans address needs entrylevel upperlevel science students facilitated student success academic growth implementation florida standards curriculums coordinated professional staff members evaluate assess sciencebased curriculum adapted teaching methods instructional strategies promote learning students differing skill levels met parents guardians discuss student progress areas improvement managed consistent learningfocused classroom environments establishing communicating clear objectives students administered tests quizzes assignments gauge students learning knowledge course materials delivered clear informative lectures subject matter framed meet state standards assessed student progress course material routine quizzes final examinations standardized assessments evaluated submitted assignments clarity skills assigned grades discussed results struggling students enhance understanding course objectives created study guides supporting materials reiterate lecture details prepare students tests maintained schoolwide culture respect actively used positive behavioral interventions support accounts receivable specialist arrivia phoenix az collect outstanding balances owed insurance carriers check invoices partial payment misapplied funds duplicate billing 062013 102015 talk adjusters get appropriate documentation invoices sent collect payment resubmit appeal invoices due billing error payment received write invoices hold error 6 months performed various accounts receivable functions handled cash receipts posting updated cash flow reports researched chargebacks writeoffs evaluated open accounts look pastdue balances pursue collection strategies verified classified computed posted recorded accounts payable data reconciled daily to totals confirm proper accounting investigated billing discrepancies implemented effective solutions resolve concerns prevent future problems worked closely delinquent account holders collect reconcile accounts approved channels kept accounts receivable tracking database current relevant client information collection billing progress program changes interfaced customers bring accounts current suitable repayment plans routinely contacted account holders balances 30 days past due resolve delinquencies partnered cash application team credit manager timely accurate posting remittances clerical associate valley health moorefield wv critical care unit 122010 122013 faxing mailing sending charts different physicians offices patients continued care followup appointments serve role model customer service ice handle verbal written telephone electronic communications central nursing station assembly patients chart maintain paper copy patients medical record order control equipment supplies environment care provide assistance needed nurses physicians use electronic medical records perform support duties maintained detailed administrative procedural processes improve accuracy efficiency directed clients guests correct departments rooms staff members processed accounts payable accounts receivable updates maintain current financial records greeted visitors callers daily handle questions direct appropriate staff organized files developed spreadsheets faxed reports scanned documents bolster organizational workflow offered diverse clerical support office team members managed correspondence answered telephone calls tracked documentation monitored calendars scheduled appointments based availability established load limits 052012 education master science administration training university west florida pensacola fl activities honors specializing biomedical pharmaceutical research studying various types pharmaceutical drugs different clinical phases studied different areas human genome project advances biomedicine molecular biology developments computer hardware software major biomedical pharmaceutical thesis stem cell research heart attack patients leadership honor society member honor roll january 2010 may 2012 3.6 gpa bachelor science healthcare administration university north florida studied different hospital healthcare policies standards statistics data collections analysis management within different administrative organization major healthcare administration 3.5 gpa high school middle school swim diving coach 042009