

summary jessica claire 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 4 resumesampleexamplecom hardware reliable health informatics professional strong ability health information system improvement offeri ng solid background data science health informatics highly organized proactive punctual team oriented mentality skills data management database management administration business requirements gathering information systems management microsoft sql data analytics experience data science fellow enterpri se information architecture security protocols deep learning statistical analysis information classi fication patient data abstracts 08/2022 current fhi 360 washington dc conduction business process ana lysis define requirement redesign mortality surveillance system zambia conduction systematic desk re view assess mortality surveillance systems well identify mortality data sources developing countries make recommendation data integration interoperability siloed health information systems zambia deve lopment guidance mortality surveillance data dashboard inform near real time decision making develop ing countries used statistical r software analyze process large data sets built compelling data stor ies visualizations using r influence decision makers built collection analysis reporting frameworks scratch devised techniques maximizing system usefulness applied data reduction exploratory analysis techniques manage large amounts data conduction interoperability assessment identify barriers faced jurisdictions united states america exchanging fast healthcare interoperability resources fhir based data electronic death registration system jurisdictional level national vital statistics system cdc national center health statistics data manager analyst fhi 360 durham nc created procedures data sh aring managed incoming outgoing data files 11/2019 06/2022 managed data gatekeeping receiving informa tion translating overseeing documents within file management system documented work processes project initiation production updates assist creation change management policies resolved information acces s issues troubleshooting improve internal data entry access assisted upholding fortifying digital se curity systems protect valuable confidential information analyzed workflows established priorities d aily operations detected resolved data quality issues discrepancies integrity quality control wrote python scripts processes data integration bug fixes partnered project management teams development s cope timelines identified data anomalies worked business units perform root cause analysis resolve i ssues developed predictive models using machine learning natural language statistical analysis metho ds using python r monitoring evaluation specialist corteva inc college station tx 07/2020 02/2022 coll aborated program senior teams develop critical qualitative quantitative data collection methodologie s supervised data collection data quality analysis evaluation dissemination research projects strate gized leadership improve decisionmaking deliver recommendations successful program policy planning e valuated program service delivery operations goals impact portfolios surveys assessments analyzed re ported statistics support budget development program evaluation synthesized learning insights resear ch evaluation reports delivery key stakeholders trained project field staff members evaluation data collection analysis reporting strategies documented research findings prepared polished reports high lighting results potential improvement strategies led valuation due diligence contracting part acqui sition process monitoring evaluation specialist 01/2018 12/2018 university research co llc urc city st ate collected tracked evaluated current business project implementation trend data researched led in vestigations various areas drive improvements devise new processes performed research analyzed conte nt records make informed decision conducted record searches coordinated units procedural problems in volving complex cases devised new improved records management programs organize protect data perfor med research analyzed content records make disclosure determinations evaluated internal systems prepa red training initiatives mitigate ongoing problems documented research findings prepared polished re ports highlighting results potential improvement strategies participated frequent staff meetings add strategic perspective daytoday conversations programming decisions senior biostatistician ghana hea lth service city state 09/2012 12/2018 monitored statistical programmer outputs provided quality contr ol validating statistical models compiled lists calculated figures generated data tables present sta tistical findings public health programs drafted statistical sections study protocols outlining information rationale objectives design methodology created study designs selecting appropriate statistical methodologies determined sample size based prespecified level statistical power conducted exploratory data analysis summarize characteristics data presented scientific team devised programs produce analysis datasets graphs tables queries targeted reports supported diagnostic test development reviewing data performing statistical analysis responded clinical team needs questions regarding study specific reports deliverables prepared complex datasets using r software statistical software sql databases power bi graphics creation communicated study results stakeholders easy to comprehend terminology education training master science public health epidemiology 122018 university ghana accra master science applied statistics 112018 kwame nkrumah university science technology kumasi ghana bachelor science health informatics 052012 catholic university ghana sunyani