

jessica claire montgomery street san francisco ca 94105 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom professional summary responsible science teacher 23 years practice certified illinois teach high school physics middle school science subjects learns integrates new technologies teaching strategies part leadership classroom management adept helping students overcome learning challenges achieve academic goals experienced applying laboratorybased learning models enhance skillsets realizes consistent improvement test scores year year skills science curriculum common core standards labbased learning models student motivation ageappropriate lesson planning student progress reporting student records management work history high school science teacher 082018 current falcon school district 49 peyton co teaches high school physics honors reports principal test proctoring standardized testing testing grading creative lesson planning group individual instruction staff development serves freshman advisor helps navigate first year high school serves refocus room team help students reflect actions whenever get trouble coordinates parentteacherstudent conferences provide feedback customized support parents students facilitates professional development training colleagues assigned supervisor works colleagues create instructional materials aimed helping students different backgrounds language culture meet educational goals selected requisitioned appropriate books instructional aids complement lesson plans inspired academic success based belief students achieve excellence regardless background understood critical development years adolescent minds structured lessons meet cognitive abilities assessed student comprehension regular quizzes tests assignments provided student academic support outside class time improve learning performance kept classroom environments consistent focused learning establishing enforcing clear objectives taught physics subject matter 55 students information compiled multiple sources including textbooks online sites educational materials collaborated specialists meet needs iep students esl students requiring extra support warehouse team member 042017 072018 amazon m inc baltimore md used forklifts pallet jacks relocate products loaded unloaded moved material storage production areas completed daily cycle counts quarterly inventories resolved variances maintain data accuracy alternated goods inventory observing firstinfirstout approach keep shelves organized properly stocked effectively operated pallet jacks cherry picker equipment receive transport items various warehouse locations completed 120 customer orders day warehouse setting recorded information shortages discrepancies keep records current accurate consistently lifted materials weighing much 50 pounds removed debris packaging boxes separated recycling disposal maintained productivity accuracy continuously lifting unpacking 50 pounds specialty packages diligently examined packages labels defects inaccuracies decreasing overall packaging mistakes 85 operated robots computer system handheld inventory control device calculator perform high school science teacher 112003 072016 falcon school district 49 peyton co leveraged diverse learning strategies prepare students higherlevel education requirements arranged materials instructional plans implement immersive activities delving physical science concepts administered standardized tests accordance wascessce testing programs planned prepared taught lesson plans giving students individual support taught science courses using labbased learning model deepen subject mastery diversified teaching techniques learning tools help students differing ability levels varied learning modalities planned escorted student field trips relevant current science course work assessed submitted class assignments determined grades reviewed work struggling students boost success chance selected requisitioned appropriate books instructional aids complement lesson plans demonstrated willingness accept feedback make corrections based advice peers parents principal kept classroom environments consistent focused learning establishing enforcing clear objectives coordinated collaborated faculty members lesson plan development maintained assignment grades worked closely students needing additional mentoring assessed student comprehension regular quizzes tests assignments developed administered detailed science curriculum 600 high school students demonstrated positive effective classroom management skills provided student academic support outside class time improve learning performance communicated students parents regarding academic progress assigned ents behavior understood critical development years adolescent minds structured lessons meet cognitive abilities education master science physics teacher education 2015 university lagos lagos nigeria thesis investigation effect sociocultural psychological variables students achievements physics senior secondary school level member students representative council coursework physics education general studies graduated top 5 class graduated 3.75 gpa majored education bachelor science physics teacher education 2003 university lagos lagos nigeria mba marketing 2012 university lagos university lagos coursework management marketing accounting graduated 3.5 gpa majored marketing thesis investigation effect aftersales services sales volume automobile marketing companies case study elizade motors nig limited cica automobile co nig limited