

jessica claire montgomery street san francisco ca 94105 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom links professional summary equipped visionary leader speaker educator health professional engaging adaptable style dedicated developing connections community students colleagues clients patients experienced health care provider secondary science teacher traditional school settings well adult aged alternative programs developed passion building relationships establishing rapport schools programs mentoring inspiring students adults well established personal commitment growth mindset educator successfully plan leverage wide range instructional approaches order meet needs goals diverse groups students health professional built strong rapport clients colleagues maintaining utmost integrity value fostering safe program operations benefit education surrounding community families excel planning diverse instructional strategies offer multiple learning avenues immersive experiences proficient providing mentors hip education advanced disadvantage culturally diverse struggling special needs students 504 ell iep etc enhance learning personal growth provide exceptional support leadership colleagues setting skilled facilitating health nutrition promotion disease prevention utilizing public classroom sermons training seminars increase understanding community continually seek personal development order grow professional worker colleague family member offering 12 year record accomplishment seeking new role special agent federal bureau investigation protect defend serve nation espionage foreign intelligence terrorism using gifts qualities attain eager ready apply extensive experience new challenging role decision making stress tolerance strong verbal written communicator experience instructional design strong collaborator communicator powerful public speaking abilities relationship building management superior teamwork independent achievement abilities skills creating implementing detailed instructional purposeful lessons clear objectives responsible stewardship finances science budget ngss lesson planning history leadership roles positive motivating empathetic educator primary secondary educator conflict resolution differentiated instruction experience special needs population experiential adventure based learning self motivated managing classroom diverse populations technological instruction tailoring curriculum plans create flexible lesson plans outlines strong engager group individual instruction academics training purposes inventory management experience creative imagination stimulation enhance learning microsoft excel proficient inventory documentation management outstanding interpersonal skills experienced initiating training students critical thinking sound skills coordinating church volunteers supervisors biology science curriculum event developer fostering inquiry based learning environment improving student engagement initiation creative assignments outstanding time management monitoring analyzing students identify weaknesses make improvements taking corrective action therapy various disorders diseases professional work experience secondary science elementary pe teacher 082018 current catapult learning washington dc salary part time 2700000 full time 4000000 managed various subjects grade levels middle school life science earth science high school biology k6 physical education effectively engage students science subjects implementation ngss curriculum biblical integration using labs interactive notebooks science fair experiments academic levels iep ell students special needs population students military low income primarily spanish speaking communicated students parents regarding academic progress assignments behavior coordinated collaborated faculty members lesson plan development personal development sessions order mediate concerns parents within academic departments demonstrated willingness accept feedback make corrections based advice peers parents students principal administration planned escorted student field trips relevant current science course work provided clear objectives students parents classroom within online lesson plans order give students generalized class goals individual goals understood critical development years adolescent minds structured lessons meet cognitive abilities demonstrated positive effective classroom management skills provided student academic support outside class time improve learning performance certified basic first aid cardiopulmonary resuscitation cpr leveraged diverse learning strategies prepare students high level education requirements kept classroom environments consistent focused learning establishing e enforcing clear objectives assessed student comprehension regular quizzes tests assignments create ad just future goals class quickly adjusted online education facing covid19 pandemic substitute teacher 012008 082018 chula vista elementary school district grossmont unified high school district city st ate salary 1200015000day long term subbing lesson planning benchmark achieving oversawtaught groups 31 students high inclusion classroom iep ell students special needs longterm substitute position cam arena elementary school 15 months commendable performance principle parents teachersadministration c eveloped deepened relationships students family members faculty promote optimal student learning env ironments enhanced student learning optimizing wide range instructional approaches innovative classr oom activities followed classroom plans left class teacher continue student education reinforce core concepts administered standardized assessments strict requirements documented information permanent records collaborated teaching staff devise implement coordinated educational strategies student sup port networks physical therapy aide exercise specialist 012015 012018 longevity physical therapy cit y state salary 1400hr identified analyzed physical weakness strengths patients order coordinate pers onalized steps daily therapy activities support individual care program meet goal healing andor main taining general health physical fitness provided patients direct specific care warm ups exercise rou tines stretches manual functional release techniques making mechanical modifications within individu als rehabilitation session assisted training patients limited multiple sclerosis cerebral palsy quad ricparaplegic amputations tumors diabetes obesity asthma visual hearing impairments physical limitat ions parkinsons vertigo broken sprained joints bonestorn muscles prepost surgery implications depres sion fibromyalgia oversaw regulated equipment relevant physical therapy rehabilitation including fro nt office administration clerical work developed patient progress reports specialized documentation therapists insurance needs invested emotionally physically spiritually individual patient due workin g intimately consistently patient order motivate reach personal goals physically trained various lev els athletic ability youth collegiate highschool professional etc well various levels physically abi lityages 780yo reviewed patient medical history referral notes medical practitioners understand heal th problems suggest appropriate physiotherapy regimen facilitate movement daily activities conferred staff discuss evaluate patient information planning modifying coordinating treatment evaluated effe ctiveness treatment plans implemented modifications education master arts teaching biologylife scien ce 122019 point loma nazarene university san diego ca thesis educating incarcerated impact education reentry reintegration past present future offenders earned credits 46 gpa 383 bachelor science kine siology public health 052017 california state university san marcos ca member kinesiology club diplo ma 062011 carlsbad high school carlsbad ca accomplishments certificates guest speaker honorary title ngss wbiblical integration science faith alliance conference carlsbad ca october 24 2019 cocreatorp roducer family steam night ovca ocean view christian academy family science night san diego canovemb erfebruary 2019 certified personal trainer national academy sports medicine nasm san diego ca august 2019 3d movement analysis performance systems gray institute san diego ca august 2015 first aidblsc pr aed certified adult child american red crossmay 2019