

professional summary jessica clare 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 resumesampleexampleco accomplished job title progressive industry background decisive leadership style offers strategic pl anning abilities background change management forwardthinking mindset ready challenges focused meeti ng future demands dedicated industry professional history meeting company goals utilizing consistent organized practices skilled working pressure adapting new situations challenges best enhance organi zational brand skills employee motivation performance policy procedure writing strategic planning in dustry expertise executive leadership annual planning change growth management operational analysis leadership people development effective communicator public speaker environmental compliance work hi story chief science officer 092010 052014 community health system fayetteville wv laboratory techniq ues analytical support equipment selection talent recruiting human resources oversight corporate str ategy development adaptable flexible management team leadership risk mitigation analysis analytical critical thinker approachable outgoing interviewed supervised motivated number staff members achieve optimal productivity aligned organizational objectives company mission increasing revenue profit bu siness growth collaboratively developing integrated strategies coordinated implemented effective tra ining number type professionals improve type processes subscribe clinical laboratory standards organ izations international laboratory standards ordered monitored new iso aami pda asqc standards recomm ended best practices interfaced staff members serving iso aami pda asqc etc committees pending new s tandards laboratory director 101985 092010 community health system lewisburg tn coordinated laborato ry work outside departments facilities keep specimens results moving forward directed team performan ce managed schedules optimized workflow maximize productivity directed oversight contract testing la bs remote labs type labs coordinated quality control policies practices implemented process improvem ents eliminate errors reduce processing time streamline procedures kept laboratory line facility reg ulatory compliance requirements developed administered yearly budget totaling amount type laboratory recruited hired trained staff providing direct supervision ongoing staff development continuing edu cation employees developed updated policies procedures maintaining compliance statutory regulatory l ocal state federal guidelines relating hipaa benefits administration general liability conducted rou tine facility inspections identifying areas needing improvement eliminating hazards posed staff resi dents continued compliance associated regulations designed introduced leadership development coachin g team management model resulting promotion employees increased levels responsibility defined testin g protocols quality assurance initiatives clinic policies procedures introduced implemented new test ing interpretation procedures maintain standards care meet quality assurance benchmarks successfully negotiated client contract renewals create increased revenue identified new areas scientific resear ch provided internal training collaborated national international organizations leverage industry co nnections laboratory director 061975 061983 microbiological development control city state coordinat ed laboratory work outside departments facilities keep specimens results moving forward directed tea m performance managed schedules optimized workflow maximize productivity directed oversight contract testing labs remote labs type labs coordinated quality control policies practices implemented proce ss improvements eliminate errors reduce processing time streamline procedures developed administered yearly budget totaling amount type laboratory kept laboratory line facility regulatory compliance r equirements recruited hired trained staff providing direct supervision ongoing staff development con tinuing education employees developed updated policies procedures maintaining compliance statutory r egulatory local state federal guidelines relating hipaa benefits administration general liability fo stered excellence example setting pace hands mentor clinical staff conducted routine facility inspec tions identifying areas needing improvement eliminating hazards posed staff residents continued comp liance associated regulations defined testing protocols quality assurance initiatives clinic policie s procedures education phd medical microbiology immunology 061975 university utah salt lake city uta h master science microbiology immunology 061972 university utah salt lake city utah bachelor science microbiology immunology 061969 university utah salt lake city utah associate science microbiology chemistry 061967 dixie jr college st george ut high school diploma 061965 payson high school payson utah affiliations association advancement medical instrumentation parenteral drug association new academy sciences regulatory affairs professional society american society testing materials professional engineers society american society quality control