

jessica claire 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom summary handson science teacher offering comprehensive educational perspectives shaped advanced scientific training bringing 14years experience designing lesson plans student learning diverse instructional strategies activity plans skillful teaching students learn develop deeper understanding foundational skills advanced techniques patient creative professional committed meeting individual needs interests abilities students technological savvy team lead differentiated science instruction classroom technology integration curriculum development laboratory equipment use skills curriculum design virtual classroom management lesson preparation classroom management parent student communication science teacher 072019 current experience garfield school district re2 rifle co developed online curriculum ap environmental science chemistry teams ap passing rate 3 76 created extracurricular activities encourage students engage environmentally community resulting awarding scholarships several students excel creating fun engaging lessons focus student learning fostering critical thinking maintained canvas course pages including developing quality online learning opportunities adapted teaching methods instructional strategies promote learning students differing skill levels managed consistent studentcentered learning focused classroom environments establishing communicating clear objectives students coordinated materials instructional plans immersive activities exploring environmental science chemistry concepts communicated learning objectives class expectations promote student comprehension achievement academic targets designed field research labs advance knowledge real life applications environmental concepts including water quality soil testing well natural history instructed classes 30 students online inclass environments science teacher 082008 062017 garfield school district re2 rifle co excellent knowledge technology including analyzing testing data developing plans reteaching material excel creating high quality lesson plans unique labs curriculum strong classroom management skills passion developing positive relationships students superior communication skills team members staff students parents utilize ipadslaptops classroom regular basis enriching activities presentations served campus academic excellence committee 2 years presented games classroom districtwide staff development wrote district curriculum several years level chemistry anatomy physiology ap environmental science helped write district wide chemistry common assessment coordinated learning opportunities including field trips debakey heart hospital allowing students watch live openheart surgeries lead team creating canvas course level chemistry maintained throughout year developed lessons differentiate instruction gifted esl learningdisabled student cultivated new student projects enrich learning apply lessons real world crafted numerous games labs foster positive creative learning environment attended chemistry charisma seminar designed make chemistry exciting fun classroom environment create stable safe environment clearly established rules consequences created atom board promote high achievement tests foster sense accomplishment pride classroom use flexible grouping allow students frequently work small peer groups promote learning weekly communication parents via email forms clinical research associate 122004 122006 endologix milpitas ca conducted laboratory assays according defined projectspecific quality performance standards adhered good clinical practices operating procedures regulatory requirements achieved project objectives working closely 20 teammates developed extensive database organized specimen collection processing storage created efficient centralized records system assessed drug storage conditions procedures check adherence standard protocols reported project manager issues related overall study status master arts biological science education training miami university oxford oh master science education curriculum instruction august 2015 sam houston state university huntsville tx bachelor science biology 2004 university texas austin certified texas science composite educator esl certified certifications