

jessica claire montgomery street san francisco ca 94105 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom professional summary driven instructor experience classroom clinical settings excited bring 13year background nursing education growing organization highly proficient developing strong education programs robust curricula engaging lesson plans focused helping students achieve personal professional goals improving patient care skills womens health exams safety health protocols health history acquisition preventative health intravenous therapy work history 112013 current health science instructor emrehr lesson planning curriculum development budget preparation execution uc health woodland park co conducted clinical simulations provided feedback individual student implemented new educational techniques boosted student comprehension reducing learning time provided nursing skill demonstrations lab setting including medication administration dressing changes preparing meals managing clinical logs analyzed clinical settings effectiveness helping students achieve course program outcomes evaluated students competencies written assignments examinations updated instructional materials ordered equipment supplies utilized various learning modalities enhance instruction provided immediate constructive feedback students individually group developed distributed course syllabus communicated course standards learning objectives students provided clear informative lectures health science content classes 1530 students evaluated revised lesson plans course content facilitate moderate classroom discussions student centered learning worked academy director devise implement support plans help exceptional students excel reviewed class student records look areas need improvement implement plans action defined articulated learning outcomes including measurements performance metrics changes improve student learning implemented optimized new curriculum daytoday instruction align educational strategies industry best practices monitored student progress test administration adapted learning plans optimize progress educated students health science content applying variety instructional techniques including hands on curriculum collaborated administration increase departmental budgets taught health science content 90 annual students oversaw daytoday operations including managing curriculum implementation continuous improvement industry best practices communicated regularly parents guardians student progress working involve parents educational goals 052007 current registered nurse uc health lone tree co delivered outstanding care patients various diagnoses managed care treatment initiation completion administered medications treatment patients monitored responses working healthcare teams adjust care plans taught patients improve lifestyle choices dramatically reducing chance symptom reoccurrence facilitated therapeutic communication conflict resolution crisis intervention redirecting negative behaviors helping patients regain improve coping abilities prevent disability assisted doctors monitoring baby mother health labor leveraged computerized documentation systems monitor record communicate patient condition assisted physician delivery examination surgical procedures anticipating needs encouraging patient attending baby birth completed comprehensive assessment patient family needs identify outcomes establish care plans monitor progress modify care plan needed coordinated care low high risk laboring women childbearing age immediate stabilization newborn following delivery performed triage incoming patients determined severity injuries illnesses 072011 112013 registered nurse university colorado denver co reported patients status delegated nurse assignments achieve optimal outcomes educated patients families caregivers diagnosis prognosis treatment options disease process management lifestyle options educated patients answered questions health condition prognosis treatment kept optimal supply levels treatment rooms triage areas meet typical patient loads explained course care medications including side effects patients caregivers easytounderstand terms used firsthand knowledge clinical expertise advocate patients care enacted prescribed treatment strategies organized managed care patients undergoing various therapies procedures including obstetrical gynecological procedures updated patient charts using greenway data medications keep records current support accurate treatments identified obstetric gynecological conditions conducting health screenings reviewing patient histories communicated healthcare team members plan implement enhance treatment strategies 062009

72010 clinical instructor bevill state community college city state assigned students patients based students learning objectives patient needs instructed students perform headto toe assessments patients intervene medical emergencies provided immediate constructive feedback students individually group delivered individualized instruction observation assessment decisionmaking patient health teaching collaborated nursing instructors implement best practices enhance student learning supervised students administering medications maintain patient safety education 122017 master science nursing university north alabama florence al 072011 bachelor science nursing university north alabama florence al 052007 associate science nursing bevill state community college jasper al