

jessica claire 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom summary energetic l dson science teacher committed promoting student learning diverse instructional strategies activity plans skillful teaching students learn develop deeper understanding foundational skills advanced tec hniques indepth knowledge various support plans standardized assessments interactive classroom instr uction curriculum development formative assessments standardbased grading program classroom manag nt parent student communication course material development instruction leadership skills learning s tyle assessment stem projectbased learning pbl classroom technologies integration grading student en gagement multicultural education experience teacher middle school science 092020 current pacific med ical centers portland planned implemented instructional program general science provided related edu cational services students grades 6 12 developed immersive activities bring various scientific topic s life students encouraged student critical thinking discussion using variety teaching techniques di fferentiated instruction according student skill level managed student behavior assessed evaluated s tudent achievement modified instructional activities required carried variety student monitoring sup ports activities taught importance safety science labs use chemicals machinery necessitates higher l evel monitoring prevent accidental injury students assessed student abilities related desired educat ional goals objectives outcomes planned implemented appropriate instructional learning strategies act ivities including determination appropriate kind level materials utilized variety instructional mate rials available multimedia computer technology enhance learning developed adapted modified individua lized educational materials resources techniques methods strategies meet needs students within city schools curriculum framework assumed direct responsibility development appropriate behavior students within school setting establishing maintaining effective discipline management procedures managed b ehavior learners instructional settings ensure environment conducive learning process assists partic ipates management student behavior parts school center school grounds work site coordinated instruct ional activities collaborated professional staff school nonschoolbased required maximize learning op portunities participated inservice staff development activities staff meetings required assigned con tinually assessed student achievement maintains appropriate assessment evaluation documentation inst itutional individual reporting purposes ensured continuous communication parents written oral keep i nformed students progress continually communicated students instructional expectations keeps informe d progress meeting expectations managed allotted learning time maximize student achievement assigned work oversaw paraprofessionals parents student volunteers required ensured classroom andor instruct ional environment attractive healthful safe conducive learning materials good condition accessible s tudents participated schoolwide student activities social events approved fundraising activities per formed promoted activities compliance equal employment nondiscrimination policies follows federal la ws state laws school board policies professional standards stem camp counselor 062016 082020 morgan state university city state cultivated effective relationships campers parents camp counselors utili zing active listening dynamic interpersonal skills adapted teaching methods instructional strategies promote learning students differing skill levels coordinated led group activities campers counselor s designed activities help individuals overcome confidence issues build strength arranged decoration s equipment site resources facilitate various entertaining activities campers helped campers build c onfidence selfesteem consistent guidance mentoring monitored signs physical emotional distress stopp ed activities administer care appropriate developed implemented camp emergency procedures communica ed potential hazards staff members campers promoted new recurring camp events activities increase pa rticipation signups promoted fun safe inclusive environment monitoring activity campers identify add ress behavioral issues helped participants enjoy activities ensuring adherence protocol planned orga nized facilitated promoted diverse recreational programs coordinated daily schedule activities assign ed campers managed transitions ensure timely arrival developed events programs consideration needs abilities interests participants advertised upcoming events promote engagement involvement remained cognizant camper dietary restrictions allergies confirming proper snacks meals distributed camper at tained facility targets including revenue goals member retention rates explored different avenues le arning students help prepare later educational environments formed facilitated led student group new establishment stem program club mentoring individual learners coordinated materials instructional p lans immersive activities exploring concepts research assistant 082015 122019 morgan state universit y city state created implemented new research methods explore mechanisms biological processes execut ed qualitative quantitative analysis wide range data managed critical paperwork informed consent for ms personal waivers designed implemented program macros carry statistical analyses studied physical principles cells organisms electrical mechanical energy screened participants enrolled research stud y administering relevant tests surveys designed research experimental studies executed research tech niques tests assays compiled organized research data produce reports graphs supported project leads preparing regulatory documentation presentations highlighting findings bachelor science biology morg an state university baltimore md deans list honoree certified nursing assistant geriatric nursing as sistant first aidcpr education training certifications