

jessica claire 100 montgomery st 10th floor 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom summary motivated professional expertise big data business intelligence artificial intelligence experienced data modeling analysis etls designingimplementing data pipelines skilled systems engineer strong background support software delivery data warehouses proficient developing advanced analytics visualization solutions strong problem solving skills collaborative approach bridge gap technical business stakeholders committed driving projects successful completion high level accountability highly motivated customeroriented data engineer extensive experience cloud data operations including data pipelines transformation data virtualization proficient aws azure adept architecting implementing data analytics solutions prioritizing security data governance skilled data warehouse design data integration advanced analytics track record driving business insights innovative technologies strong project management skills collaborative mindset make asset team skills friendly positive attitude data management planning organizing training development critical thinking learn continuously collaborate share knowledge focus clients communicate influence innovate try new things supervision leadership active listening strong written verbal communication experience reporting data science consultant 012022 current interamerican development bank iadb city state tableau sql server teradata denodo marketplace power bi sap data services sap business objects data visualization azure aws data lake databricks oracle plsql data driven professional honed skills identifying resolving data anomalies collaborating crossfunctional teams conduct root cause analysis meticulous attention detail clean manipulate raw data ensuring accuracy consistency meaningful analysis crafting compelling data stories impactful visualizations influence decision makers drive strategic initiatives collaborating closely team members leaders gather analytical requirements deliver customized solutions power users designing efficient workflows etl processes integrate diverse data sources ensuring smooth data interoperability expertise data analysis forecasting documentation ensures transparency facilitates knowledge sharing within team team lead specialist 102008 012022 diners club international discover financial services city state experienced systems engineer diners club ecuador leading sustain support critical platforms systems proactively addressed incidents requests problems enhancements ensure uninterrupted operations skillfully combined business processes platforms technologies develop efficient solutions meticulously analyzed documented tested platform development logic process flows specifications accuracy effectiveness fostered collaboration shared knowledge among crossfunctional teams aligned solutions customer objectives strategies contributed evaluation data governance framework recommending improvements proposing roadmap align organizational objectives collaborated different teams define implement data governance action plans managed bi development team coordinating activities monitoring progress delivering program activities informational projects ensured proper design information management models coordinated development multidimensional models information delivery planned coordinated development business intelligence applications automation systems supporting decision making strategic tactical operational levels provided technical guidance mentorship junior colleagues identifying areas improvement offering practical solutions led development new information models applications reports dashboards management indicator solutions oversaw resource allocation project monitoring within information management unit coordinated delivery programmed information different areas organization external agencies managed various projects including enterprise data warehouse design implementation business intelligence platform migration operational knowledge transfer statistical reports generation successfully executed platform migration projects including business intelligence migration sql server 2000 sql server 2005 sql server 2012 led automation budget monitoring project well development customer profitability model technical consultant business intelligence 092005 102008 grupomas city state leveraged statistical software analyze process extensive data sets extracting meaningful insights produced visually impactful graphs charts illustrate data analysis results facilitating comprehension decisionmaking utilized machine learning natural language processing statistical analysis met hods develop predictive models drove datadriven decisionmaking applied data reduction exploratory analysis techniques manage derive value large complex data sets designed innovative models algorithms visualizations distill key insights vast volumes data enabling actionable recommendations crafted delivered technical proposals clients showcasing value potential impact data analysis solutions provided comprehensive training staff users equipping necessary skills effectively utilize computer systems software programs education training masters degree artificial intelligence data science 112023 universidad de la rioja espana bachelors degree engineering information systems computing escuela politecnica nacional ecuador languages spanish negotiated certifications english negotiated data science expert program betametrica 2023 aws data pipeline coursera 2022 database architecture scale nosql elasticsearch coursera 2022 data science everyone track datacamp 2019 applied ai natural language processing nlp workshop teradata university 2019 introduction neural networks handytec academy 2019 big data fundamentalshandytec academy 2019 machine learning business perspectives handytec academy 2019 introduction machine learning python handytec academy 2019 sap data services noux academy 2015 introduction teradata database teradata colombia 2015 microsoft certified technology specialist microsoft 2005 accomplishments successfully implemented survey analysis model kics events leveraging benefits data virtualization using denodo integrated surveymonkey apis transfer data external database tables transformed business logic driven views collaborated data management team deploy views semantic layer data catalog reducing development implementation time survey dashboard dashboard wellreceived aligning department promoting datadriven culture implement dashboard presents learning results active employees idb group allowing improve monitoring process cml annual training hours staff must meet part annual goal led team diners club implement teradata enterprise data model credit card gaining recognition top management managed multiple phases mapping data sources implementing extraction transformation loading processes team 20 data engineers loaded decades worth data data warehouse optimizing key modules like acquisition billing rewards core banking proficient data warehousing cloud technologies ensuring scalability security using amazons services demonstrated leadership collaboration successful implementation industry standard data models showcasing efficiency handling diverse data sources created highly effective automated credit card authorization reports diners club significantly improving operational efficiency enhanced credit card authorization model enabling preparation statistical reports early morning streamlined process eliminated need three individuals spend four hours day report generation optimized system freed personnel focus data analysis enhancing overall productivity accomplishment demonstrates ability identify process improvement opportunities develop automated solutions maximize resource utilization improved efficiencies positively impacted operations resulting informed decisionmaking promoted specialist senior specialist diners club technology department less 12 months