

jessica claire montgomery street san francisco ca 94105 555 4321000 resumesampleexamplecom professional summary medical science liaison adept recognizing clinical needs values key stakeholders provide physicians unbiased clinically relevant medical information advocate advancement medical sciences lead improved clinical outcomes work history medical science liaison 012017 102019 syneos health inc regional medical science liaison responsible safe effective use company products dissemination information insights internal external stakeholders responsible delivering onsite physician staff training guidance documentation reporting techniques lessen risk adverse events support customer commercial needs education procedural patient cases respond field based medical information inquires appropriate accurate materials data provide insights internal stakeholders proactive engagement medical kols customers facilitate ongoing clinical trials investigator initiated studies gather review new study proposals test merits clinical impact organization strategy assist internal education disease states portfolio solutions alternative therapies commercial marketing rd teams serve internal subject matter expert cross functional teams organizational projects medical science liaison 052015 122016 syneos health inc williamsburg va responsible developing relationships within medical/scientific community provide medical and/or scientific data angiodynamics products research healthcare professionals maintain clinical scientific technical expertise review scientific literature attendance medical conferences serve clinical lead cross functional strategy meetings business unit perform project management responsibilities sponsored clinical trials registries preclinical research serve clinical expert business unit provide assistance regulatory submissions marketing materials sales force training clinical specialist 112009 052015 mentor network fridley mn support clinical procedures operating room radiology suites throughout us educate staff physicians operation intended use angiodynamics medical devices equipment rfa habib lc beads nanoknife conduct training programs domestic international sales force customers train newly hired clinical specialists sales representatives assist hands-on physician training courses vascular interventional radiology technologist 2008 112009 hca palm harbor fl prepped patients procedures using aseptic technique assisted radiologist numerous procedures including gi neurovascular cases embolizations neuroembolizations coil liquid chemotherapy embolizations uterine fibroid embolizations various stroke patient interventions tips aaa stent graphs filmed archived exams completed patient charges operated portable carm operation room procedures interventional radiology coordinator 072006 2008 nebraska medical center kansas city mo supervised technologists support training development new hires assisted radiologists obtaining information referring physicians pulling previous films dictations performed clinical duties interventional radiology technologist educated patients family members procedures post procedure care interventional radiology technologist 072004 072006 emory university hospital city state prepped patients procedures using aseptic technique assisted radiologist numerous procedures including gi embolizations neuroembolizations coil liquid chemotherapy embolizations uterine fibroid embolizations various stroke patient interventions tips aaa stent graphs filmed archived exams completed patient charges operated portable carm operating room procedures associate science medical sciences 2004 emory university atlanta ga bs business management 1999 state university new york stony brook ny associate applied science fitness specialist 1997 suffolk county community college selden ny education certifications american registry radiologic technologists rvt skills kol engagement development study review design credibility within medical community especially field ir productive crossfunctional teams activities surg onc knowledge fda guidance regulations outstanding customer service case support project management ace award recipient 2015 accomplishments